

CONVENTION
EXTRA
No. 1.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NO RISK OR

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.
IN BATTLELINE

Blaine and Harrison Forces Facing Each Other at Minneapolis.

Voting Likely to Be Delayed in the Convention Till Friday.

Dilatory Tactics Adopted in Passing on Claims of Contest-ing Delegations.

McKinley and Reed Show Increasing Strength as Compromise Candidates.

Reported Break for Harrison in the New York Contingent Exiles Ex-Senator Platt.

Clear, Warm Weather for the Second Day of the Great Political Struggle.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 8.—The real work of the convention begins today. It is admitted by all that there are lively times ahead, though the situation early this morning appears to be practically unchanged from the Harrison and anti-Harrison headquarters are to be believed. If they are each gaining as steadily and surely as they say they are they must have secured at the present time at least 600 or 700 delegates apiece.

Information gathered from all sources tends to indicate at break that the Harrison men have made the most progress in winning over the doubtful ones, and that the present situation is simply a stand-off between the rival forces.

Each side is really afraid of the other, and the leaders exaggerate their own strength in order to keep their lines intact and encourage their respective followers to believe that they have the best of the fight. There is any amount of underground wire-pulling going on, but it must be said that the Harrison men are more frank and open in the fight than their opponents.

A surprising feature of the situation is the apparent weakening of the Blaine boom within the past twenty-four hours, with a corresponding increase in confidence of the Harrison organization. This, coming times daily after the enthusiastic predictions of the Blaine men's friends Monday night, has dampened the ardor of his followers considerably. It is due to the fact that many of the claims made have been shown to be unfounded.

The rumor is about to-day that the anti-Harrison men do not intend to put Blaine in nomination at all, and that they are only seeking to gain time to consolidate their strength and spring some third man on the convention.

Plotting for a Stampede.
It is admitted by many outspoken friends of Blaine that he has been secured for the first ballot. His nomination is certain on the first ballot, and in that event it is necessary to draw enough votes from Harrison to make the Blaine nomination impossible on the first ballot. If this can be done, it is argued, and Blaine appears as a candidate, there will be a stampede to his aid, and that while the Harrison ranks on the second ballot of those who voted for him on the first from a sense of duty.

The theory is that the large proportion of the Harrison delegates were appointed and instructed to pledge before it was known that Blaine was a candidate, and that while they are bound to follow instructions their hearts are for Blaine.

QUINCY's work, say Blaine's friends, and this thought gives them confidence.
Another rumor is that it is the intention to drop Mr. Blaine entirely. In the event that the contest proves too bitter to secure harmony by the nomination of either of the leading candidates, a third ticket, headed by either Reed or McKinley, may be brought before the convention.

The Alger boom has gained somewhat in strength, and it is claimed this morning that he has forty-eight votes and is in the fight.
McKinley is relied upon to detach some votes in Ohio in case the dilatory tactics are played by the Blaine men.

The Reed talk has been stimulated by the unexpected popularity shown by him at yesterday's session of the convention. The oration which he received was apparently unpremeditated and spontaneous, and could hardly have been more cordial and enthusiastic if the tribune had been given to Blaine himself.
In fact, this incident is the chief topic of conversation among the delegates to-day, and in view of the uncertainty of the issue between Blaine and Harrison, Reed is looked to by many to fill the gap.

The speech of yesterday seemed to thrill every one with the wildest enthusiasm, and the cheers that followed it continued for several minutes. The reception given to Mc-Kinley was almost cold in comparison. As the latter is to be the permanent chairman, it was not his place to respond to the calls for a speech and his refusal to do so is regarded as entirely proper.

One important gain for Harrison results from the splitting up of the Rhode Island delegation, which has heretofore been considered solid for Blaine. It appears that the leaders of the delegation have come to the conclusion that Blaine is simply being used as a stalking horse to defeat Harrison. Accordingly the Rhode Island men have withdrawn their support from Blaine and gone to Harrison, not in a body, but at least four of them.

Isaac H. Goff, of Providence, said to THE EVENING WORLD correspondent this morning:
"We are secretly solid for Blaine, and will remain so, though there are two or three who have thought better of Harrison. I believe that Blaine will be nominated on the first ballot. There is no use of talking of a dark horse, for there will be no chance for one."

George N. Deering, a leading member of the Blaine delegation, said this morning: "There is little probability that Harrison will be nominated on the first ballot. Indeed, I think it uncertain even whether his name is presented to the convention, though of course he will get just as many votes as if he were actually placed in nomination."

"The reason is that he has not now a sufficient number of votes to secure the nomination on the first ballot. The main thing is to prevent Harrison from getting the nomination on the first ballot, and if this is accomplished the President will be practically out of the race."

May Be Reed and McKinley.
"As to the dark horse, I believe, if it is found that neither Harrison nor Blaine can be nominated, Reed and McKinley will be the ticket. At any rate Reed is a good man to keep your eye on in the next few days."

"I can assure you that if Blaine is nominated he will accept. There is not the slightest doubt about this point."

Mr. Reed, who is the guest of Senator Washburn, of Minneapolis, is a frequent caller at the rooms of the Maine delegation, and last evening he paid a visit to the rooms of Mr. Platt, which was regarded as a significant act. His friends all say, however, that he will not be brought forward in any event as long as Blaine is in the field.

One of the expert mathematicians of the Harrison camp told THE EVENING WORLD correspondent this morning that every delegate claimed by Harrison was absolutely certain except one. "I have seen a large portion of these delegates myself," said he, "and I know what I'm talking about. Our total strength to-day is 476, with one man wavering. This does not include a single man among the contested delegates from the Southern States or any delegate of whom we have any doubt whatever."

"That is why we are able to assert so positively that Harrison will be nominated on the first ballot. I know that Blaine has 400 votes which are absolutely certain. His managers are putting on a strong front and making confident claims, but, as you can see, they do not substantiate any of their statements. They claim everything because it is easy to say so."

"Some of our people are claiming over 500 for Harrison, but this is not true, although we probably will have that number secured before the balloting occurs. At headquarters they may tell all sorts of stories and give out all sorts of figures, but this estimate is based on facts, of which I have absolute and positive knowledge."

De Witt C. Wheeler, of New York, has been doing a little investigating on his own account, and he said: "I believe Harrison has Blaine beaten already, and that his friends are perfectly justified in claiming that Harrison will win on the first ballot. I believe the anti-Harrison men realize this fact."

Delegate Peter Ulrich, of Newark, is of the same opinion. The New Jersey delegation is now reckoned solid for Harrison.

This information came from several sources, through delegates from different States who are in touch with the bosses at the Maine headquarters.

It is stated that after making a thorough canvass of the Harrison delegations, a large number of men have been found whose sympathies are entirely with Blaine and who are restive under the restraint which their pledges or instructions impose upon them and who will satisfy their scruples if they cast their vote for Harrison on the first ballot.

There is no likelihood that it will complete its labors before the opening of the convention, as the committee on credentials adjourning until after to-day's session of the convention, and it is likely that the proceedings of the first session to-day will be perfunctory, as an adjournment must perforce be taken until the report of the committee on credentials is read and it is definitely determined who are entitled to seats in the convention.

Instead, however, of proceeding with its labor last night this committee met, had a dispute, and adjourned to this morning.

There is no likelihood that it will complete
its labors before the opening of the convention, as the committee on credentials adjourning until after to-day's session of the convention, and it is likely that the proceedings of the first session to-day will be perfunctory, as an adjournment must perforce be taken until the report of the committee on credentials is read and it is definitely determined who are entitled to seats in the convention.

Naturally none of the anti-Harrison leaders will admit the truth of this story. Nevertheless, the feeling is gaining ground, and the language of the risk which the party would run of losing New York with Harrison, while with Blaine it was absolutely safe.

F. A. Day, one of the Minnesota delegates at large, replied in a somewhat sarcastic vein and a hot discussion followed, in which the Minnesota men made it rather plain that they resented the intrusion of the New York delegates, who retired somewhat crestfallen.

The corridors of the West Hotel have lately been comparatively quiet. Last late evening the Harrison rosters gathered in force in the rooms of the Indiana delegation, and attracted a large crowd by singing some of the Harrison songs recently imported by
the Columbia Club, of Indianapolis. Col.
Elliott F. Shepard, who was wandering about the corridors, was attracted by the music and went in and joined the singers. "It looks very Harrisonian to-night," he remarked in a jocular tone to THE EVENING WORLD correspondent.

Stains of the Committee.
The committee contain a majority in favor of the anti-Harrison factions. The fight in the committee on credentials was the result of the absence of several of its members at the time of its temporary organization.
When Gen. William Cogswell, a supposed Harrison man from Massachusetts, was chosen chairman, the Harrison element were greatly excited.

Their joy was turned into mourning, however, when they found that the chairman worked with the Blaine men. All efforts to bring up the contests last night by the Harrison men prove fruitless, as the test of strength showed that they were in a hopeless minority.

Ex-Gov. Foraker, of Ohio, captured the Chairmanship of the Committee on Resolutions, which was considered another important victory for the Blaine men. Very little outside enthusiasm, however, was manifested in consequence of the achievement.

It is said this morning that if the Committee on Credentials follows the example of the National Committee and gives the seats to the contestants the fight will be carried into the convention. In consequence of the refusal of the Blaine element to take up the contests last night the committee will be compelled to devote most of the day to the business, and they may not finish it until tomorrow. The result is that there is no probability that the balloting will be reached before Thursday afternoon or evening, and possibly it may be delayed till Friday.

This delay is generally attributed to the desire of the anti-Harrison people to put off the decision vote as long as possible. If the contested cases are brought into the convention this will be made before the balloting for candidates begins.

New York's Divided Rank.
The break in the New York delegation, the news of which came out about midnight, is causing the attention of the delegates to-day.
Harrison, it is claimed, has now thirty votes in the delegation and is expected to get three or four more to-day. Mr. Platt has all along been claiming fifty votes for Blaine, and the reported defection adds to the elation and confidence of the President's adherents.

It is said that when Mr. Platt has been expected all along to win this morning, as he rubbed his hands gleefully. "They can't beat Harrison now no matter how hard they try.
We have made gains in Pennsylvania and Rhode Island since yesterday, and they are falling into line as regularly as clockwork."

"We hear all sorts of things," he replied, diplomatically. "But as I am not in the councils of Mr. Blaine's friends I cannot say anything about it."

If the further gain expected are made Mr.
Platt's followers in the New York delegation will be cut down below 40, collector men-dricks, who today opened his mouth for the first time, thus explained the manner in which the break was brought about:

"The members of the New York delegation tend to be divided into two camps. One friendly to Mr. Harrison, the other suspicious of the integrity which Mr. Platt has been giving out in regard to the strength of Blaine in the delegation. He has all along claimed fifty-eight delegates. Last evening invitations were sent out to thirty members of the delegation supposed to be friendly to Harrison and twenty-seven were present."

reception in St. Paul. Gen. Husted is ill in his chamber, and Dr. Hopp, of Brooklyn, was attending some festivity in town. All three of these are strong Harrison men and can be relied on to support the action of the meeting.

"After some discussion a resolution was passed pledging each person present to support Harrison through thick and thin. Bradley and Francis are known to be opposed to Blaine and will not vote for him under any circumstances, but prefer some third man.
There are three other men whose names I am not at liberty to mention who, I believe, will come out for Harrison within the next twenty-four hours. In my opinion there is not the slightest doubt of President Harrison's re-election."

MAY NOT BALLOT TILL FRIDAY.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 7.—There has been developed a very significant change in the Presidential situation. The Blaine people have demonstrated that they have control of the most important committees, those on Rules and Credentials, the last named having jurisdiction over the numerous contests, the importance of which can hardly be overestimated.

Instead, however, of proceeding with its labor last night this committee met, had a dispute, and adjourned to this morning.

There is no likelihood that it will complete
its labors before the opening of the convention, as the committee on credentials adjourning until after to-day's session of the convention, and it is likely that the proceedings of the first session to-day will be perfunctory, as an adjournment must perforce be taken until the report of the committee on credentials is read and it is definitely determined who are entitled to seats in the convention.

Naturally none of the anti-Harrison leaders will admit the truth of this story. Nevertheless, the feeling is gaining ground, and the language of the risk which the party would run
of losing New York with Harrison, while with Blaine it was absolutely safe.

F. A. Day, one of the Minnesota delegates
at large, replied in a somewhat sarcastic vein
and a hot discussion followed, in which the Minnesota men made it rather plain that they resented the intrusion of the New York delegates, who retired somewhat crestfallen.

The corridors of the West Hotel have lately been comparatively quiet. Last late evening the Harrison rosters gathered in
force in the rooms of the Indiana delegation,
and attracted a large crowd by singing some
of the Harrison songs recently imported by
the Columbia Club, of Indianapolis. Col.
Elliott F. Shepard, who was wandering about the corridors, was attracted by the music and
went in and joined the singers. "It looks
very Harrisonian to-night," he remarked in a jocular tone to THE EVENING WORLD correspondent.

Stains of the Committee.
The committee contain a majority in favor of the anti-Harrison factions. The fight in the committee on credentials was the result of the absence of several of its members
at the time of its temporary organization.
When Gen. William Cogswell, a supposed Harrison man from Massachusetts, was chosen chairman, the Harrison element were greatly excited.

Their joy was turned into mourning, however, when they found that the chairman
worked with the Blaine men. All efforts to bring up the contests last night by the Harrison men prove fruitless, as the test of strength showed that they were in a hopeless
minority.

Ex-Gov. Foraker, of Ohio, captured the Chairmanship of the Committee on Resolutions, which was considered another important victory for the Blaine men. Very little outside enthusiasm, however, was manifested
in consequence of the achievement.

It is said this morning that if the Committee on Credentials follows the example of the National Committee and gives the seats to
the contestants the fight will be carried into the convention. In consequence of the refusal of the Blaine element to take up the
contests last night the committee will be compelled to devote most of the day to the business, and they may not finish it until tomorrow. The result is that there is no probability that the balloting will be reached before Thursday afternoon or evening, and possibly
it may be delayed till Friday.

This delay is generally attributed to the desire of the anti-Harrison people to put off
the decision vote as long as possible. If the contested cases are brought into the convention this will be made before the balloting
for candidates begins.

New York's Divided Rank.
The break in the New York delegation, the news of which came out about midnight, is causing the attention of the delegates to-day.
Harrison, it is claimed, has now thirty
votes in the delegation and is expected to get three or four more to-day. Mr. Platt has all along been claiming fifty votes for Blaine, and
the reported defection adds to the elation and confidence of the President's adherents.

It is said that when Mr. Platt has been expected all along to win this morning, as he
rubbed his hands gleefully. "They can't beat Harrison now no matter how hard they try.
We have made gains in Pennsylvania and Rhode Island since yesterday, and they are
falling into line as regularly as clockwork."

"We hear all sorts of things," he replied, diplomatically. "But as I am not in the councils of Mr. Blaine's friends I cannot say anything about it."

If the further gain expected are made Mr.
Platt's followers in the New York delegation
will be cut down below 40, collector men-dricks, who today opened his mouth for the first time, thus explained the manner in which the break was brought about:

"The members of the New York delegation tend to be divided into two camps. One friendly to Mr. Harrison, the other suspicious of the integrity which Mr. Platt has been giving out in regard to the strength of Blaine in the delegation. He has all along claimed fifty-
eight delegates. Last evening invitations were sent out to thirty members of the delegation supposed to be friendly to Harrison
and twenty-seven were present."

They are losing every where and have become very much demoralized. The situation is more encouraging to us than it has been at any time during the canvass."

Dr. Platt added that there is no difference in the New York delegation from what there has been from the beginning.

"We claim forty-eight and there are forty-eight," said Gen. Thomas, and he ridiculed the idea that he had gone over to the enemy.
He declared that he had never been inclined to vote for Harrison, he would not possibly do it now, because he had been slighted and not invited to this alleged conference.

Mr. McEwen, another of the five not present but counted, was very indignant when told that he was counted as a Harrison man at the conference and replied at the time the conference was held, he was making speeches for Blaine.

WORKING ON THE PLATFORM.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 8.—Talk of a big row in regard to silver was current when the full platform committee assembled last night.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

The silver men were reported as claiming
that they had been promised a majority on
the sub-committee, and that the promise had
not been fulfilled.

Baiting the Traps.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Cherry Diamond Handicap the Feature at Morris Park To-Day.

Only one stake is colored on the card at Westchester to-day. This is the Cherry Diamond Handicap, a mile and a sixteenth, and it promises to be made up of the best horses of any other feature. Madstone, Hacedland, Livonia and others ought to furnish a great race in this event. The other races do not contain very high-class horses, but they should furnish some excellent sport nevertheless. The track will be dry and fast. The selections are as follows:

First Race.—A sweepstakes for maiden two-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, weight 7 pounds below the scale. Five and a half furlongs.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Second Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a quarter.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Third Race.—A sweepstakes for maiden three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Fourth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Fifth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Sixth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Seventh Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Eighth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Ninth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Tenth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Eleventh Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Cherry Diamond Handicap the Feature at Morris Park To-Day.

Only one stake is colored on the card at Westchester to-day. This is the Cherry Diamond Handicap, a mile and a sixteenth, and
it promises to be made up of the best horses
of any other feature. Madstone, Hacedland, Livonia and others ought to furnish a great race in this event. The other races do not contain very high-class horses, but they should furnish some excellent sport nevertheless. The track will be dry and fast. The
selections are as follows:

First Race.—A sweepstakes for maiden two-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, weight 7 pounds below the scale. Five and a half furlongs.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Second Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a quarter.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Third Race.—A sweepstakes for maiden three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Fourth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Fifth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Sixth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Seventh Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Eighth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113
W. C. Day's Prince George, 113

Ninth Race.—A sweepstakes for three-year-olds, of $20 each, with $1,000 added, one mile and a half.
W. C. Day's Prince George,